Pennsylvania Artillery Veterans Send a Handsome Souvenir.

A MEMENTO OF THEIR VISIT

Wedding of Miss Janie McIlwaine Vaughan to Mr. R. H. Seabury.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., November 2.-A.
P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans held an especially interesting meeting this evening when Lieutenant-Commander Richard B. Davis delivered an excellent address on General A. P. Hill, and Rev. Dr. George H. Ray, of this city, in behalf of the Pennsylvania Second Heavy Artillery Association, pre-sented to the comp a handsome souvenir as a memento of the pleasant visit to the recent reunion of a number of Union the recent reunion of a number of Union veterans from that organization. During their visit these veterans placed markers on the battlefield of the Crater, showing the fight. Dr. Ray, who was chaplain of the Third Virginia Cavairy in the Civil War, made the presentation as a commission from George W. Ward, of Philadelphia, secretary of the G. A. R., who was with the visiting Union veterans at the reunion.

A beautiful wedding took place this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Vaughan, when their daughter, Mss Jane McIlwaine Vaughan, was merried to Mr. Robert Hamilton Seabury, of this city. Rev. Dr. Richard McIlwaine, great-uncle of the bride, performed the cereinony, are ted by Rev. Dr. J. S. Foster.

Miss Martha Dunn Vaughan, sister of the bride, wee wold of hours, and Mrs.

Miss Martha Dunn Vaughan, sister of Miss Martha Dunn Vaughan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Hill Beasley was best man. Quite a number of relatives and nuests were present at the ceremony, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scabury, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Beabury, of Providence, R. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bond, of Baltimore. The number of arrests stated by Chief of Police Ragland in his October report was erroneously, reported by vour correspondence.

of Police Ragland in his October report was erroneously reported by your correspondent as 128 instead of 182.

Work for the building of a new hotel in Petersburg is being actively pushed, and a meeting of the hotel committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which is in charge of the enterprise, will be held this week to arrange the formation of a stock company and ask for blds.

WATTS HOSPITAL.

The Founder Gives Ten Thousand for Addition to Building.

sand for Addition to Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. C., November 2.—Mr. Geo.

W. Watts has donated the Watts Hozpital $10,000, which will be spent in building an addition to the present building.
The contract for this new addition has been given and the work of laying the foundation his commenced.

The hospital will contain a department for the nurses which will cost $1,500.

The Watts Hospital was given to the people of Durham several years ago, the institution costing near $50,000 will give Durham one of the best hospitals in this section.

WILL DIE OF LOCKJAW.

The Slayer of W. H. Davis is Near His End.

Near His End.
(Special to Tha Times Dispatch,
NORFOLK, VA., November 2.—John
J. Dawley, the young man in Princess Anne county, who recently killed his friend, W. H. Davis and hus since been confined to his father's home in that county, suffering from burns received when he set fire to his father's barn
the night of the killing, is now suffering from lockiaw, and there is no hope for his recovery.

Coming Weddings.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., November 2.—Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Paxton, of Woodstock, to the marriage of their daughter. Miss Estiline Paxton, to Mr. Stuart Ashby Howard, of Brook Road, Richmond, The wedding will take place in the Presbyterian Church at Woodstock, November 16th, at 6 o'clock.

terian Church at Woodstock, November 18th, at 6 o'clock.

The wedding of Miss Stella Lindamood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lindamood, of Headquarters, Shenandoah county, and Mr. George R. Black will take place at the bride's home at Headquarters, on November 7th, at 11 o'clock.

Three Corps.

Three Corps.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CRAB ORCHARD, VA., November 2.—

Three corps of engineers are now camping on the waters of the Northfork of Powels River here, surveying a line of railway up this watercourse from the spur railroad of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad that runs from Pennington Gap up into the Pocket Coalfield. They are employes of the Black Mountain Rail, road Company.

Dead in Arizona.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., November 2.—Mr.,
David Hankel, son of Mrs. Angeline
Hankel, of this county, died in Arizona Hankel, of this county, died in Arizon to-day. His body will be brought her for burial.

How About Underwear?

These cool nights and mornings give you a chilly feeling, don't they?
Well, a suit of medium-weight Underwar will remedy the trouble, and we have all the proper weights for now.

Linen Mesh. Medium-Weight Slik, Medium-Weight Wool, Medium-Weight Balbriggan.

Gloves that will make your hands feel more comfortable For the best in Haber-dashery and Hals we are yours to serve.

Norman F. Short Co. Haberdashers and Hatters, 812 E. Main St.

There's Money for You

An actual saving on every purchase. It's what you save that counts. Let us help you to save.

Large Size Rugs.

Let us show you how low in price we are selling them. Pretty carpet sizes from $12.00 up. This has been an unusually busy

Carpet season. We have satisfied a great many people. Let us furnish your Carpet. We'll do it The best Axminster Carpets for $1.25 per yard. /

Chamber Suits. Oak, Walnut and Mahogany. Odd Dressers, Washstands, Wardrobes and Chiffoniers.

Our Line of Stoves and Ranges cannot be excelled. Are you in-terested? We can please you. Comet Self-Feeders—the best base burner made, Gas Radiators, Rothert's, Fourth and Broad

WOMAN MISSIONARY UNION OF VIRGINIA

Two Hundred Delegates to Be Entertained in Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (special to the times-Dispatch)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November
2.—Judge J. E. Mason continues ill at his home in King George county, and, though somewhat improved, was unable though somewhat inhores, to open the November term of King George Court to-day. A large crowd, however, was in attendance at the court and politics were generally discussed. Hobert W. Blair spoke for the Republi-and politics were generally discussed. Robert W. Blair spoke for the Republicans.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Virginian, an auxiliary to the Baplist General Association, will convene in the Baplist General Association, will convene in the Baplist Church in this city, Thursday, November 18th, and continue in session until the following Monday, November 18th, inclusive. Every missionary society in the State is entitled to one delegates and the number of delegates in attendance will probably exceed two hundred. They will be entertained at the homes of the Baplitst people of this city. The programme is an extensive one and the meeting is looked forward to with great interest by the Baptist denomination here. In addition to addresses, reports by the ladies, several special addresses will be made by some of the strongest ministers in the State. Mrs. Mary Quinn Hicks is president of the local Woman's Missionary Bociety, and Miss Alice G. Cole, president of the Young Woman's Mission Band. Mrs. J. P. Rowe is charman of the committee on hospitality, with Mrs. C. W. Jones as assistant. The delegates will be tendered an elegant reception at the church on Saturday night, at which choice music and addresses will be features.

The claim of Shiloh Baptist Church,

the church on Saturday high, at which choice music and addresses will be features.

The claim of Shiloh Baptist Church, colored, of this city, for damages to their property during the civil war, to the amount of $1,500 has been acted upon favorably by the United States Court of Claims and it is expected that the amount will be appropriated in the general bill when it comes before the next session of Congress.

Miss Feeling, a graduate of Garfield Hospital, Washington; post-graduate of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and for several years connected with Dr. Wilson's private sanitarium, in Baltimore, has been appointed head nurse at the Mary Washington Hospital, in this city.

Mir, George Purvis, of "Little Whim" farm, in Stafford county, near this city, produced from one field of forty acres 1,500 bushels of corn and eighty tons of fodder.

COFFEE HOUSE SOLD. A Large Wholesale House Made

of Cement Blocks.

of Cement Blocks.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GRAHAM. VA., November 2.—The Coffee House, the leading hotel of Graham, was sold at public auction Saturday, and was bid in by Mr. Wm. E. Fowler, who purposes removing the old wooden structure and erecting an elegant three-story brick business house on the site. This will necessitate the erection of a new hotel, which will greatly help our little city. city.

The Methodist people of Graham are preparing to build a $3,000 parsonage for

The Methodist people of Graham are preparing to build a $3,000 parsonage for the pastor.

Professor E. H. Given has sold his Graham real estate and has bought a fine school property at Mashelm. Tenn.

An immense wholesale house is nearing completion here. It is the property of the Walters Wholesale Company and is built of cement blocks. This makes Graham three wholesale grocery companies.

nies.
Graham has grown wonderfully this season; many splendid houses have been built and other improvements made.

BRIDGE BURNED.

Trafic Interrupted On Atlantic Division of Southern.

Division of Southern.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE. N. C., November 2.—
Traffic south of Charlotte on the Atlanta division of the Southern has been interrupted to-day by the burning of a bridge over the south fork of the Catawba River, near Belmont, a few miles south of Charlotte. The fire first started this morning about 4 o'clock, and the woodwork, embracing the approaches, were destroyed. The body of the bridge is of steel and rests on piers of solid musonry. Wrecking crews were sent to the scene, and a temporary structure is being built. Trains were delayed ten hours. A number of south-bound trains were routed by Columbia. by Columbia.

MR. TUCKER TO SAIL.

Will Visit Europe in the Interest of the Exposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., November 2.—President H. St. George Tucker, of the Jamestown Exposition Company, will sail from New York next Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse for Plymouth, England, and will be away several weeks in the interest of the tercentennial.

LIFE SAVER DEAD.

Edward Joseph McLaughlin

Passes Away at Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., November 2.—Edward Joseph McLaughlin, the brave life-saver, who did patrol duty at Virginia Beach, died in this city this morning after a protracted illness, in the thirty-seventh year of his age. He was a brother of Captain Richard McLaughiln, of the Nor-lok fire department, who recently distinguished himself as a life-saver by diving into the water for Mr. Snyder and then going back for Mr. Snyder's eleven-year-old nephew, who had gone dewn the third time, and saving both of them.

They had driven into the open draw of Smith Creek bridge. The deceased was not married.

ROAD AND HUNT CLUB.

Grand Reception at Their New Club House.

Club House.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROXBURY. VA. November 2.—The Chickshominy Rod and Hunt Club heid a grand reception at their net club-house to-day, near this place. The day was spent in fishing, hunting and social enjoyment. The heavy was spent in fishing, hunting and social enjoyment in the menu.

The members present were: Messrs. C. Evenson, president; J. G. Leland, secretary and treasurer, Visitors were: Mr. John Doyle, Mr. Walter Simmerman, Alderman; Mr. Walter Sharff, Mr. George Kessanver, clerk; Colonel S. L. Savage, J. A. Wright.

Sixty pounds of pike, forty pounds of chub, sixteen squirrels, two turkeys and several rabbits was the game carried back.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Reference to Roosevelt Provokes Tremendous Applause.

Tremendous Applause.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER. VA., November 2.—
Thomas Lee Moore, of Christiansburg, United States attorney for the Western District of Virginia, addressed a large and enthusizestic Expubligan suddence, here to-night. He spoke at length on the planks of Republican State platform and denounced the Democratic administration of analrs in Virginia. His reference to President Roosevelt as the world's greatest statesman and peacemaker, evoked tremendous applause.
Commonwealth Attorney Harry R.
Kern introduced the speaker.

MARKET STREET CHURCH.

Celebration of Its Semi-Centennial Anniversary.

Anniversary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., November 2.—Inter-denominational services were held this evening in connection with the semi-centennial anniversary of Market Street Methodist Episcopal Church, A vast congregation was in attendance and brief addresses were made by all the city pastors, including Rev. Dr. James R. Graham, pastor emeritus, of the Presbyterian Church, who is the only person living who delivered an address at the dedication fifty years ago.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILKESBARRE, PA., November 2.—
Since President Rossevelt visited this city last August and addressed the Catholic temperance workers, the cause of temperance has shown remarkable pro-ancet of Pennsylvania, in the headquar-ters, sent workers into the coal fields immediately after the Fresident's visit, and as a result twenty-two divisions of the organization have been formed, with a membership of 2,000.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON. November 2.—The Navy Department is arranging to have the preliminary trial of the battleship Virginia, now being built at Newport News, take place about November 2ist. This brings another big battleship close to the point where she will be ready to be placed in commission and carry the figg out upon the high seas. Like the battleship Rhode Island, which has reached the trial stage, the Virginia has a displacement of 14,940 tons, and is designed for a speed of nineteen knots. Her complement calls for forty officers and 772 enlisted men. The Virginia is fitted as a flag ship. (By Associated Press.)

Horse Show New York Nov. 13th to 18th

Old Dominion Steamship Company's twelfth annual personally conducted excursion to New York, account of the great Horse Show, will leave Richmond, via Old Dominion Night Line, Friday, November 10th, at 7 P. M., and via Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, Saturday, November 11th, at 4 F. M., or Norfolk and Western Railroad, 3 P. M., connecting with express steamer. Old Dominion Line, at Norfolk arriving in New York, Sunday, 3 P. M. Round trip tickets, good for ten days, only $12,00, including meals and stateroom berth on steamer. As New York will be crowded Horse Show week, apply early and secure good steamer and hotel reservations. Special hotel rates have been secured for the party, JOHN F. MAYER, Agent, JOHN F. MAYER, Agent, 808 East Main Street.

IS PROSTRATED FROM EXHAUSTION

Master of Portland Schooner Three Days and Nights at the Helm.

REFUSED CLEARANCE PAPERS

British Steamer, in Distress, Violates American Health Regulations,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA. November 2.—Captain Wall, of the schooler Nellie, is here prestrated from overwork and exhaustion, and Maynard Beal, the mate, of Portland, Me., has been sent to the hospital dreadfully ill. Captain Wall has telegraphed to Rockport, Me., his home, for another master to take his place while he goes home to recuperate. He is a big, powerful sallor, but he is unnerved by hardship and exposure. He selled in the Nellie from Philadelphia a week ago for Key Francis, Cube, with a cargo of. coal. The mate was stricken and took his berth, and the captain took the place at the helm, wifere he remained three days and nights, without sleep till he put in here exhausted.

He was in a pitifully nervous condition to-day.

The Refish steamer Appels which came in here in distress yesterday, has been refused clearance papers by Colof Customs Banks, and is held pending the decision of the Secretary of pending the decision of the Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor. She came from Havana, whence she salled for Sydney, Cape Breton, putting in here because her supply of coal was insufficient and to get coal to ballast the ship, which is light, and has been blowing about like a feather in the gales at sen.

at sea.

She lost three days because of the head winds, and this clused the shortage of coal. The reason the ship is held is that she has no American bill of health, and she violated regulations by health, and she violated regulations by coming to an American port without one. For such violation a fine of $5.000 may be imposed, but it is anticipated that when the authorities at Washington learn that the ship came in in distress she will be released.

C. B. Bishop, a traveling salesman from Milwaukee, Wis., is in jall awatting communication with his friends for the payment of $80 due to M. B. Perry, of the Gladstone Hotel. He arrived here of the Gladstone Hotel. He arried her last night, and was arrested after he had registered at another hotel.

had registered at another hotel.

Perry charges that the prisoner, while a patron of the Gladstone last spring, secured the value of two drafts drawn on the Willers Manufacturing Company, of Milwaukee, for $80, which were returned unpaid.

GRAFTON ALSO

the field waited patiently on the top of the field waited patiently on the top of a high hill for the hounds to give some note of warning. In the meantime the pack followed hard by Claude Hatcher, Mr. Smith's second whip, had sailed away down Beaver Dam Creek valley, and for two hours was not seen by the field, who spent the time in riding over stone walls and fences in a fruitless atstone walls and fences in a fruitless attempt to discover the whereabouts of Ladies Went Well.

The ladies all went remarkably well.

Mrs. Westmorelond Davis, on "O. K.;"
Mrs. Pierce, on "Bruce;" Mrs. Ladenburg, on one of Mr. Ahl's hunters; Miss.
Dulaney, on the "Wellbourne Bachelor;"
Mrs. Henderson, on "The Wizard," and Mrs. Grafton Abbott, on her clever bay

Mirs. Grafton Abbott, on her clever hay hunter, made better performances than most of the men.

At 9 o'clock hounds were discovered near the Hogback Mountain with the ever-present Hatcher close in their company. Hatcher averred, according to the testimony of three negro men, four and a half-couple of the Grafton hounds had gotten up a red fox and pursued him so relentlessly that he took shelter under a rock pile. Neither Dr. McEachran, Mr. Movius or Mr. Maddux, the judges, saw any of this run and whether or not Mr. Movius or Mr. Maddux, the judges, saw any of this run and whether or not the alleged work of the pack will be a part of record will not be determined until masters and judges have passed upon the question. Mr. H. W. Smith, M. F. H., of Grafton, has filed a statement asking that the judges allow the work of running the fox to earth to be recorded.

Hounds were again thrown in on the outh side of Beaver Dam Creek and ABOUT NOVEMBER 21

(By Associated Press.)

NGTON. November 2.—The partment is arranging to have larged arranging to have begun.

Forty-Mile Run.

Forty-Mile Run.

Horses covered at least forty miles today, and although there was no hunting worthy of the day, still those who followed hounds enjoyed riding across a country than which there is no better in America and over jumps of the sportiest character.

To-morrow, the Middlesex hounds will make another bid for victory, the meet being at Goose Creek bridge on the estate of Colonel Dulaney, of Wellbourne, who, although eighty-six years of age, is estate of Colonel Dulaney, of Wellbourne, who, although eighty-six years of age, is taking a keener delight in the Grafton-Middlesex match t.an any other person in the Picdmont Valley. Colonel Dulaney, so determined that to-morrow's meet shall prove successful, has stopped all the earths on his enormous estate and has cut and flagged all wire fences for the whole eighty miles of the Goose Creek Valley through which, the fox will probably run. In addition to doing this. probably run. In addition to doing this, Colonel Dulaney, in order to further sport and extend the territory of the match, notified the farmers of the valley that he would be personally responsible for any damage done to their farms duration. ing the hound trials.

English Huntsman.

English Huntsman.

Robert Colesworth, the English huntsman, of Middlesex, rode to hounds today behind Mr. Smith's American pack. Colesworth was not highly impressed with the work of the American product, and after remaining out a short while, notified Mr. Higginson that he had "more important business at home," and departed for the Middlesex establishment at Middleburg.

departed for the Middlesex establishment at Middleburg.

The field made up daily of about thirty-eight riders, is about equally divided in its opinion of merits of the English and American hounds. All the Middleburg contingent is for the English, while all the Upperville end of the county is for the American.

Mrs. Ladenburg, who has just returned from Ireland, where she has been hunting with the Meath hounds is a warm adherent of the Middlesex pack, as are Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Peirce, of Boston.

On the other hand, Mrs. Westmoreland Davis, Miss Dulancy and Mrs. Henderson are followers of the American hounds and pure thee, min to Mr. Smith's pack. Bo far, neither pack has scored a point in the match, but it is thought that to-morrow morning, Middlesex will have an ample opportunity of proving its worth in the meadows of Wellbourne, where foxes are known to be in abundance.

ALLEN POTTS.

FUNDS ATTACHED.

Enjoined.

Enjoined.

(By Associated Press.)

WILMINGTON. N. C., November 2.—
All the funds in the hands of the two local councils of the Royal Arcanum here were attached to-day by the sheriff, upon a process from Mecklenburg county Superior Court, where a suit against the Supreme Council of the order has been instituted by ex-Judge Armistead Burwell and others, as a protest against the recent increase of the insurance rates. Local officers of the Royal Arcanum decline to discuss the situation or give amounts of funds on hand.

GRAND TOURNAMENT

Miss Sallie Goodwin Crowned Queen of Love and

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

.- The first tournament of the season

The result was as follows:

H. Hall Hardenbergh crowning queen
Miss Salle Goodwin. First maid, Miss Mallory, by Mr. Wright, of Yanceyville.

Second maid, Miss Alice Hood, by Mr.
Zack Swift. Third maid, Miss Grade
Crank, by Mr. Willie Jones, of Yanceyville.

hospitable home of Mr. James B. Good-win to-night. The artistic work of Mr. H. Hall Hardenbergh was jospecially maryelous, he taking every ring.

zation and active work to that end is ization and active work to that end is now. The opinion was unanimous that as North Carolina is so closely identified with Virginia in a commercial as well as a social way this can be and should be made an internate exhibition, and the possibility is that its name may be the Virginia Carolina Fair. Views were exchanged as to locaton, grounds, etc. as to character of exhibits, character and size of buildings, necessary capital and how to be raised; ways and means to attract visitors, especially visitors from distant States who already are longingly turning their eyes to the South with its salubrious climate, long working seasons and fertile lands. The concensus of opinion was that one of the most important and far-reaching results of such a fair as is proposed will be the impetus it will give to desirable immigration. mpetus it will give to desirable immiimpetus it will give to desirable immi-gration. Every conceivable feat—te of a big State fair was discussed at one time and another, and, of course, the race track feature was not overlooked. At this time when the subject of raising good horses is attracting so much at-tention in Virginia, especially in the Valley and the Southwest, it is believed that horses—good horses and fast horses— must be given every consideration. The proper exhibition of farm products, of course, came in for a large share

The proper exhibition of farm products, of course, came in for a large share of the talks.

Alf of these views were given and exchanged in a general conversational way and in order that the committee shall be prepared to present their views in more concrete form a paper prepared by Mr. Cooke and containing the following questions was handed to each member, the answers to be submitted in writing at the next meeting:

10 General suggestions? Committee Enlarged.

On motion next Thursday night was fixed as the date for the next meeting, at which time the new members to be selected by the sub-committee are expected to sttend and take part. Chairman Lorraine called a meeting of the sub-committee on new members for 11 o'clock Then after a toast to the host of the evening the committee adjourned.

This fall has been an unusually happy season, and this makes necessary the bridal gift. Our stock is selected with the utmost care and discrimination, and we collect here the newest for such occasions.

will convince you how easy it is to make a pleasing selection. We cordially invite you to

Schwarzschild Bros. LEADING JEWELERS,

Local Councils Royal Arcanum

ON MILLER FIELD

Beauty.

FREDERICK'S HALL, VA., November

ville.
The coronation ball took place at the

COMING FAIR'S

the answers to be submitted in writing at the next meeting;

1. Name of fair?

2. Amount of capital stock?

3. Price of each share of stock?

4. Shall it be offered for popular subscription or raised in large lumps. And how shall it be paid?

5. Location and reason for location?

5. Suggestions for design of buildings?

Suggestions for design of buildings?
 Should buildings and grounds include bicycle and race track and athletic field?
 Scope of fair?
 Date and duration?

Committee Enlarged.

The informal discussion being over Col. Murphy moved that the committee be increased to thirty members and that a sub-committee of five, of which Chalman Lorraine shall be one, be appointed to select the members to complete the list of thirty. The chair named as his associates on the sub-committee Messra. Coke, Murphy, Wallerstein and Ellis. Colonel Murphy cordially invited the committee to be his guests at Hotel Murphy on the occasion of the next meeting. The invitation was as cordially accepted.

Gifts for Brides

and most appropriate creations We know that a look through our immense and artistic stock inspect.

Corner Broad and Second Sts

Try It-

To-day!

Fehr's Malt Tonic

A wine glass full during meals and before retiring.

will make you feel brighter, better, stronger. Will strengthen and invigorate you so that your daily work will not seem burdensome. Will make you as well and keep you as well as it does thousands of others,

Get It of Your Druggist.

The most wonderful reconstructive Tonic of the age, a Fehr's Malt Tonic Dept. Louisville, Ky.

Ainslie Carriage Company 10 South Tenth Street.

...Runabouts at Cost ...

We have in stock a number of high-grade, fully guaranteed the abouts, rubber or steel tire, which we are selling at a sacrifice. The vehicles are strictly first class, and can be bought for the price of the We are making a specialty of a Medium-Grade Buggy, and offer

Top Buggy for $50.

Let us show you this Buggy.

emoval from your possession. Lowest Rates. No Publicity. The Weekly Payment on a Loan.

If you cannot call personally, write r telephone, and our confidential gent will call on you. 'Phone 4312. RICHMOND LOAN CO.,

SWANSON PLEASED

Well Received Everywhere and Expects Big Majority-Speaks at Portsmouth.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., November 2 .- Congressman Swanson, Democratic nomines for Governor, arrived here to-day and held an informal reception at the Monticello Hotel. He said he had travelled all over the State and is pleased with the progress of the campaign and confident of victory. He declared that he has been cardially received everywhere and that the indications are for a large vote.

He spoke before a large audience in Portsmouth to-night defining the issues of the campaign and pleading with the Democrats for harmony of action and energy in securing a large vote.

PERSISTENT FIRE BUGS.

Two Attempts to Burn Dwelling of Joseph Spencer.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
LOUISA, VA., November 2.—Susie,
Ella and Annie Johnson (mulattoes), about 9 o'clock Monday, attempted to burn the dwelling of Joseph Spicer, located about three miles from town. Failing in their first attempt, Annie went to the store of Mr. McGchee, where she purchased three pinth of kerosine oil and two boxes of matches and about 4 o'clock on the same afternoon a second attempt was made, but was fristrated. All parties were arrested and appeared before Muigstrate J. H. M. Hunter to-day, who discharged Ells and sent Susie and Annie on to the grand jury. about 9 o'clock Monday, attempted to Jury.

In the trial that will take place at the next term of the court some interesting developments are expected.

Judge Sims's Note.

(By Associated Press.)

LOUISA, VA., November 2.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Sims Democratic Club was held in the courthouse last night. Reports from all quarters showed that Judge Sims would carry the county by a large majority, his home district goving him nearly a solid vote.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN, ON NOvember 1st, from my yard, Shepherd 1b. have free small white spot on neck, body black, right foot black, brown and white, left foot black and brown. Liberal reward if returned to H. E. WINSTON, 315 S. Pine, or 'Phone 25641.

THE STRENGTH

and durability of our Trunks does not in any way interfere with their hand-same appearance. We make only such TRUNKS

One glance at our NEW line of WALL PAPERS and DECORATIVE GOODS will convince the most fastidious taste that we still maintain our position as leaders in beautifying homes.

We are offering the RARE opportunity of an EXCLUSIVE selection. Our FOREIGN papers for the season of 1905 and 1906 have arrived and are particularly offective in color and design, and are after the best artists in Europe.

"THE BEST WALL PAPER, FROM THE BEST FACTORIES IN THE WORLD."

WORLD." R. B. BRAUER. 208 North Fifth Street

COAL

Phone connection

quality, $6.00 per ton, delivered; also Splint and Pocahontas Lump at market prices. Oak and Wood, long, sawed and split.

WALKE & BALLAUFF, 17th and Cary Sts., 'PHONE 169.

The Valentine Museum ELEVENTH AND CLAY STREETS.
OPEN 10 A. M. TO 5 P. M.
ADMISSION, 25C.
FREE ON SATURDAYS.

The Confederate Museum TWELFTH AND CLAY STREETS.

Opens daily from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Amission, 25 cants. Free on Saturday.

as you'd be proud to own. All things needful to the traveller, Bags, Suit Cases, Steamer Trunks, Hat Boxes, etc. H. W. Rountree & Bro., Trunk and Bag Co., Retail Store, No. 703 E. Froad Strazt.

"THE CAREFUL OBSERVER."